

A Quick Summary

Your Name

July 8, 2025

How to Present Your Work

- Start with your audience in mind. Think about what the audience will want to know, what might confuse them, what might potentially interest them.

How to Present Your Work

- Start with your audience in mind. Think about what the audience will want to know, what might confuse them, what might potentially interest them.
- Craft a story. Don't present the whole paper. Let your main idea and your most critical result drive the story of your presentation.

How to Present Your Work

- Start with your audience in mind. Think about what the audience will want to know, what might confuse them, what might potentially interest them.
- Craft a story. Don't present the whole paper. Let your main idea and your most critical result drive the story of your presentation.
- Guide audience's attention. Use visual cues (e.g, highlighting, arrows, animations, or step-by-step reveals) to direct your audience's focus to exactly what matters most on each slide.

A Fair Warning

A Fair Warning

Important

Stay away from the cat.